Imprint: Boosting the movement for Rural Revitalization

Yuexiu Group is deeply committed to implementing the strategy of rural revitalization. To achieve this, we are focusing on key elements such as industry, finance, consumption, talents, education, and employment. We are also strengthening collaboration and paired assistance between the eastern and western regions. Our efforts include the development of several rural revitalization projects. These projects encompass a whole industrial chain for pig breeding, a pilot project combining insurance and futures, and an international hotel training base. These initiatives aim to enhance the sustainable development of the countryside and contribute to the overall growth of rural areas.

Boosting industrial assistance

We understand that a thriving industrial sector forms the foundation for rural revitalization. Leveraging our strengths in agricultural resources, we are actively promoting integrated pig breeding projects and supporting the launch of the Yuexiu-Haid shrimp breeding project in Dongli Town, providing valuable industrial support for rural revitalization in the region.

Our ultimate goal is to foster the development of the entire pig farming industry chain, ensuring sustainable growth and prosperity in rural areas. Yuexiu Group has successfully launched pig breeding projects in five districts and counties across three prefecture-level cities, namely Bijie, Qi'nan Prefecture, and Anshun in Guizhou Province. Currently, eight projects are either operational or under construction, totaling approximately RMB 1.75 billion in investment, with a combined design capacity of 1.02 million pigs. Seven projects have already been completed and put into operation, while one project is still under construction. Through close collaboration with farmers, we strive to cultivate an eco-friendly approach to pig breeding. We utilize the surrounding land of our breeding projects to explore the integration of farming and breeding through eco-agriculture initiatives. In Fengkai County, Zhaoqing City, we invested 3.2 billion RMB to build an integrated pig farming agricultural industrial park project, which will realize large-scale batch production through self-breeding and self-feeding mode, with an annual output of 1.08 million hogs.

Yuexiu-Haid shrimp breeding project in Dongli Town is under construction to drive rural revitalization efforts, Yuexiu Group and Haid Group have established a joint venture. Together, we are building a shrimp farming park in Dongli Town, Leizhou City. In August 2022, the Yuexiu-Haid shrimp breeding project officially commenced in Dongli Town. With a long-term planned area of 3,000 mu (approximately 494 acres) and an estimated total investment of RMB 1 billion. Notably, the project incorporates an innovative Rural Revitalization Fund, which sets aside 6% of the net profits generated annually for rural revitalization and poverty prevention in Dongli Town.

Yuexiu Group is committed to promoting the “deep integration” of the first, second, and third industries. As part of this commitment, we have independently invested approximately
